Navigating the Performance Evaluation Process

Performance evaluations are an essential step in creating a positive, efficient workplace. Many employment law related cases can be avoided or successfully defended if performance reviews are conducted regularly and work deficiencies are properly documented and discussed.

The Instructors

Connie Poulsen comes to us from a 25 year career with Xerox Corporation. She has previously taught at Peninsula College and owns her own business, Poulsen Management Training and Consulting. Connie holds Bachelors and Masters degrees from California State University, Long Beach.

Michael Bolasina is a labor and employment law attorney with the Seattle law firm Summit Law Group. He received his law degree from New York University in 1989.

Participant will gain

- Managerial and legal guidelines for conducting performance reviews
- Tools for model evaluations and performance assessment processes
- Strategies for documenting and completing evaluations
- Lessons learned from interactive small group discussions and real-life scenarios
