Management & Supervisory Training 101

A two day course emphasizing management & employment law-related topics

This class taught by Connie Poulsen and Mike Bolasina is always in demand! Don't miss your chance to take this highly regarded class developed for WCRP member counties.

About This Course

Connie Poulsen examines the basic skills needed immediately for any new manager. Connie covers leading, communicating effectively, managing priorities, ethics, and managing employee performance. Mike Bolasina of Summit Law provides information on the big top 5 topics in employment law: discrimination, harassment, retaliation, disability accommodation, and leave laws.

Management and Supervisory 101 training is recommended for all managerial and supervisory employees.

The Instructors

Connie Poulsen comes to us from a 25 year career with Xerox Corporation. She has previously taught at Peninsula College and owns her own business, Poulsen Management Training and Consulting. Connie holds Bachelors and Masters degrees from California State University, Long Beach.

Michael Bolasina is a labor and employment law attorney with the Seattle law firm Summit Law Group. He received his law degree from New York University in 1989.
