

MANAGING 365

ABOUT THIS COURSE

Unprepared managers present a risk to any organization. The Managing 365 workshop is designed to teach managers how to select excellent leaders, then continue to coach and develop them on an ongoing basis without micromanaging. Having engaged leaders is the key to success and can significantly reduce employment liability. As managers it's easy to go about our busy day assuming our supervisors continue to do a great job. But that's when things can go awry, so it's important to provide ongoing guidance, coaching, and support regardless of how trained or experienced your staff may be. All managers and supervisors will benefit from attending the Managing 365 workshop taught by Connie Poulsen.

Instructor:

Connie Poulsen comes to us from a 25 year career with Xerox Corporation. She has previously taught at Peninsula College and owns her own business, Poulsen Management Training and Consulting. Connie holds Bachelors and Masters degrees from California State University, Long Beach.
